Hard-dough biscuits are one of the most popular biscuits in the world.

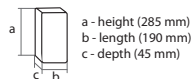

It is cooked by multiple dough folding and subsequent rolling of thin sheets with special rollers. It is this cooking method that provides increased lamination and inability to crumbling. The perforations in the biscuits ensure that the dough sheets remain flat during baking and do not bulge.

Oatmeal biscuits are a sweet treat familiar to everyone from childhood. The round, golden brown biscuits, crispy on the top and quite soft inside, are textured and can energize the body when you cannot have a meal. Wonderful biscuits for all connoisseurs of a traditional recipes.

The Slodych wafers are a five-layer delicacy with fillings that have become traditional. Their taste and shape are reminiscent of the very wafers from the Soviet childhood. They have a mouth-watering crunch and rich taste. They are a great dessert for tea or coffee that will cheer you up and create a warm and positive atmosphere for communication.
